

Spiritual Recovery!

Author Yong Hui McDonald

Twisted Logic

This is a book that every pastor should have in their library. It gives a how-to guide in dealing with people who are suffering with thoughts of suicide. For the family that is walking in the grief of the painful reality of suicide, this book will bring them hope and understanding.

Dancing in the Sky

Immobilized with the pain and grief from the loss of her husband of 30 years, Chaplain McDonald experienced an amazing recovery with the help of God. She tells her story of recovery in the hope that others may be helped through their grieving process.

Journey With Jesus

Journey With Jesus is a wonderful story of the Holy Spirit in Yong Hui McDonald's life through her visions, dreams, meditations and reflections. Rev. Yong Hui V. McDonald relates her ability to use these experiences to help others through her prison ministry.

Hope for those who are suffering from grief and loss.

Yong Hui McDonald offers healing through her own story of survival from grief and loss.

Chaplain McDonald's husband was killed in an automobile accident in 2008. Immobilized with the pain and grief from the loss of her husband of 30 years, she experienced an amazing recovery with the help of God.

Reverend Yong Hui V. McDonald has been a chaplain at Adams County Detention Facility (ACDF) in Brighton, Colorado, since 2003. She is a certified American Correctional Chaplain, spiritual director, author of five books, and an on-call hospital chaplain. In 2005, she founded the Transformation Project Prison Ministry (TPPM), which produces ACDF inmates' MAXIMUM SAINTS books, and DVDs. She founded GriefPathway Ventures LLC in 2010 to help others learn how to process grief and healing.
