Biography

Gerald Krueger was born in 1968 in Wheat Ridge, CO, and is the youngest of five brothers and sisters.

Heavy is a graduate of Northglenn High School where he excelled on a national level in football and wrestling. He went on to play football at Western State College in Gunnison Colorado under Coach Hal Rogers.

From there, Gerald "Heavy" Krueger went on to be a certified level 2 addiction counselor with the gang unit for the University of Colorado Health Science Center Classified Staff. There he was trained using gestalt therapy "which means living in the now, addressing issues now".

As a gang counselor, Heavy worked with over 125 Denver gang sets. Finding this to be a great challenge Heavy also received his degree in theology from Heritage Christian Center School of Ministry, 1995-1996.

Taking on other odd jobs, Heavy also became a personal trainer and managed several health clubs in Denver and the surrounding suburbs.

One day Heavy found himself standing in front of Jimmy "Superfly Snuka" of the WWE when he decided to jump start his career in wrestling on the independent scene. With Jimmy's help he has done over 77 dark matches or appearances with the WWE.

On the independent scene, Heavy held 4 different organizations heavyweight belts.

After a vicious roll over accident in Hays Kansas on January 25, 2003, Heavy left the wrestling world and went on to become a full time captain with three major feats of strength assembly programs.

As of today, Heavy has spoken in over 850 public schools as well as prisons, jails, youth centers, men's conferences and music festivals.

Heavy has three beautiful children, Kyle, Catalina and Joshua.

Sincerely,
Gerald HEAVY Krueger
